Worksheet for Seniors ('20)

This form must be completed and submitted to Professor Perry at your meeting next week along with the Departmental Academic Planning Form (DAFP) in TigerHub.

Deadline for seniors to select spring courses is Friday, December 6.

You must sign up via WASE for a meeting: <https://wase.princeton.edu/>.

For the Religion major you're required to have taken REL 222: Theories and Methods in the Study of Religion OR a Critical Approaches course (CA courses are marked as such in the Religion Department course listings: <https://religion.princeton.edu/category/courses/>), along with one course in each of the five areas listed below. You're also required to take a minimum of eight and a maximum of twelve courses in the department. You may also designate up to two courses in other departments as cognates, provided you have approval from the departmental representative.

Fill in the blanks with course titles, numbers and semester taken:
